COMES NOW, the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel KAREN P. HEWITT, United States Attorney, and ANDREW G. SCHOPLER, Assistant U.S. Attorney, and hereby files its response in opposition to the motions filed on behalf of defendant JOSE AMBRIZ-SAUCEDO ("Defendant") and hereby files its motions for reciprocal discovery and for fingerprint exemplars, which are based upon the files and records of this case.

I

INTRODUCTION

Defendant stands charged with Deported Alien Found in the United States, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a) and (b).

II

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In the interests of preserving any efforts of Defendant to save prosecution and judicial resources in this case, the Government hereby incorporates Defendant's statement of facts by reference, for the purpose of this response only. If the case is not resolved and Defendant files motions beyond the current straightforward discovery motions, the United States will provide a more detailed statement of facts. The United States reserves the right to expand or amend the statement of facts in future filings.

III

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

A. THE UNITED STATES WILL PRODUCE REQUIRED DISCOVERY

The United States intends to fully comply with its discovery obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), the Jencks Act (18 U.S.C. § 3500), and Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Government anticipates that most discovery issues can be resolved amicably and informally, and has addressed Defendant's specific requests below.

(1) The Defendant's Statements

The Government recognizes its obligation under Rules 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B) to provide to Defendant the substance of Defendant's oral statements and Defendant's written statements. The Government has informed Defendant of all written statements that are known to the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney at this date and will produce all available videotapes and/or audiotapes as soon as possible. If the Government discovers additional oral or written statements that require disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(A) or Rule 16(a)(1)(B), such statements will be provided to Defendant.

The Government has no objection to the preservation of the handwritten notes taken by any of the Government's agents and officers. See United States v. Harris, 543 F.2d 1247, 1253 (9th Cir. 1976) (agents must preserve their original notes of interviews of an accused or prospective government witnesses). However, the Government objects to providing Defendant with a copy of any rough notes at this time. Rule 16(a)(1)(A) does not require disclosure of the rough notes where the content of those notes have been accurately reflected in a type-written report. See United States v. Brown, 303 F.3d 582, 590 (5th Cir. 2002); United States v. Coe, 220 F.3d 573, 583 (7th Cir. 2000) (Rule 16(a)(1)(A) does not require disclosure of an agent's notes even where there are "minor discrepancies" between the notes and a report). The Government is not required to produce rough notes pursuant to the Jencks Act, because the notes do not constitute "statements" (as defined 18 U.S.C. § 3500(e)) unless the notes (1) comprise both a substantially verbatim narrative of a witness' assertion, and (2) have been approved or adopted by the witness. United States v. Spencer, 618 F.2d 605, 606-07 (9th Cir. 1980). The rough notes in this case do not constitute "statements" in accordance with the Jencks Act. See United States v. Ramirez, 954 F.2d 1035, 1038-39 (5th Cir. 1992) (rough notes were not statements under the Jencks Act where notes were scattered and all the information contained in the notes was available in other forms). The notes are not Brady material because the notes do not present any material exculpatory information, or any evidence favorable to Defendant that is material to guilt or punishment. Brown, 303 F.3d at 595-96 (rough notes were not Brady material because the notes were neither favorable to the defense nor material to defendant's guilt or punishment); United States v. Ramos, 27 F.3d 65, 71 (3d Cir. 1994) (mere speculation that agents' rough notes contained Brady evidence was insufficient). If, during a future evidentiary hearing, certain rough notes become discoverable under Rule 16, the Jencks Act, or Brady, the notes in question will be provided to Defendant.

(2) Arrest Reports and Notes

The United States has provided Defendant with arrest reports. As noted previously, agent rough notes, if any exist, will be preserved, but they will not be produced as part of Rule 16 discovery.

1 (3) Brady Material

2 Again, the United States is well aware of and will continue to perform its duty under Brady
3 v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976), to disclose
4 exculpatory evidence within its possession that is material to the issue of guilt or punishment.
5 Defendant, however, is not entitled to all evidence known or believed to exist which is, or may be,
6 favorable to the accused, or which pertains to the credibility of the United States' case. As stated
7 in United States v. Gardner, 611 F.2d 770 (9th Cir. 1980), it must be noted that "the prosecution
8 does not have a constitutional duty to disclose every bit of information that might affect the jury's
9 decision; it need only disclose information favorable to the defense that meets the appropriate 10 standard of materiality." Id. at 774-775 (citation omitted).

11 The United States will turn over evidence within its possession which could be used to 12 properly impeach a witness who has been called to testify.

13 Although the United States will provide conviction records, if any, which could be used
14 to impeach a witness, the United States is under no obligation to turn over the criminal records of 15 all witnesses. United States v. Taylor, 542 F.2d 1023, 1026 (8th Cir. 1976). When disclosing such 16 information, disclosure need only extend to witnesses the United States intends to call in its case-
17 in-chief. United States v. Gering, 716 F.2d 615, 621 (9th Cir. 1983); United States v. Angelini,
18 607 F.2d 1305, 1309 (9th Cir. 1979).

19 Finally, the United States will continue to comply with its obligations pursuant to 20 United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991).

21 (4) Sentencing Information

22 The United States is not obligated under Brady to furnish a defendant with information
23 which he already knows. United States v. Taylor, 802 F.2d 1108, 1118 n.5 (9th Cir. 1986). Brady
24 is a rule of disclosure, and therefore, there can be no violation of Brady if the evidence is already 25 known to the defendant. In such case, the United States has not suppressed the evidence and 26 consequently has no Brady obligation. See United States v. Gaggi, 811 F.2d 47, 59 (2d Cir. 1987).

1 But even assuming Defendant does not already possess the information about factors which
2 might affect his guideline range, the United States would not be required to provide information
3 bearing on Defendant's mitigation of punishment until after Defendant's conviction or plea of 4 guilty and prior to his sentencing date. See United States v. Juvenile Male, 864 F.2d 641, 647 (9th
5 Cir. 1988) ("No [Brady] violation occurs if the evidence is disclosed to the defendant at a time
6 when the disclosure remains in value."). Accordingly, Defendant's demand for this information
7 is premature.

8 (5) Defendant's Prior Record

9 The United States has provided Defendant with a copy of his criminal record in accordance 10 with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(1)(B).

11 (6) Proposed 404(b) and 609(b) Evidence

12 The United States will provide Defendant with official notice of its proposed use of other 13 acts evidence, pursuant to Federal Rules of Evidence 404(b) or 609(b), and information about such 14 acts at the time the United States' trial memorandum is filed.

15 (7) Evidence Seized

16 The United States has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(C) in 17 allowing Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, copy and inspect physical 18 evidence which is within the possession, custody or control of the United States, and which is 19 material to the preparation of Defendant's defense or are intended for use by the United States as 20 evidence in chief at trial, or were obtained from or belong to Defendant, including photographs.

21 The United States, however, need not produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United 22 States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 474 U.S. 953 (1985).

23 (8) Preservation of Evidence

24 The United States will preserve all evidence to which Defendant is entitled pursuant to the 25 relevant discovery rules. However, the United States objects to any blanket request to preserve 26 all physical evidence.

1 The United States has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(C) in
 2 allowing Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, copy and inspect physical
 3 evidence which is within his possession, custody or control of the United States, and which is
 4 material to the preparation of Defendant's defense or are intended for use by the United States as
 5 evidence in chief at trial, or were obtained from or belong to Defendant, including photographs.
 6 The United States has made the evidence available to Defendant and Defendant's investigators and 7 will comply with any request for inspection.

8 Again, the United States will continue to comply with its obligations pursuant to 9 United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991).

10 (9) Law Enforcement Personnel Files – Henthorn Material

11 The United States will continue to comply with its obligations pursuant to United States
 12 v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991).

13 (10) Tangible Objects

14 The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E) in 15 allowing Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy all 16 tangible objects seized that is within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material
 17 to the preparation of Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence
 18 during its case-in-chief at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The Government
 19 need not, however, produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United States v. Givens, 767
 20 F.2d 574, 584 (9th Cir. 1984).

21 (11) Expert Summaries

22 The Government will comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(G) and provide Defendant with a written
 23 summary of any expert testimony that the Government intends to use under Rules 702, 703, or 705
 24 of the Federal Rules of Evidence during its case-in-chief at trial. This summary shall include the 25 expert witnesses' qualifications, the expert witnesses opinions, the bases, and reasons for those 26 opinions. The United States has provided its expert notice below and has provided (or will 27 provide) resumes and reports in discovery.
 28

1 (12) Impeachment Evidence

2 As stated previously, the United States will turn over evidence within its possession which 3 could be used to properly impeach a witness who has been called to testify.

4 (13) Criminal Investigation of Government Witness

5 Defendants are not entitled to any evidence that a prospective witness is under criminal
6 investigation by federal, state, or local authorities. “[T]he criminal records of such [Government]
7 witnesses are not discoverable.” United States v. Taylor, 542 F.2d 1023, 1026 (8th Cir. 1976);
8 United States v. Riley, 657 F.2d 1377, 1389 (8th Cir. 1981) (holding that since criminal records 9 of prosecution witnesses are not discoverable under Rule 16, rap sheets are not either); cf. United 10 States v. Rinn, 586 F.2d 113, 118-19 (9th Cir. 1978) (noting in dicta that “[i]t has been said that 11 the Government has no discovery obligation under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C) to supply a 12 defendant with the criminal records of the Government’s intended witnesses.”) (citing Taylor, 542 13 F.2d at 1026).

14 The Government will, however, provide the conviction record, if any, which could be used 15 to impeach witnesses the Government intends to call in its case-in-chief. When disclosing such 16 information, disclosure need only extend to witnesses the United States intends to call in its case-
17 in-chief. United States v. Gering, 716 F.2d 615, 621 (9th Cir. 1983); United States v. Angelini,
18 607 F.2d 1305, 1309 (9th Cir. 1979).

19 (14) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie

20 The United States is unaware of any evidence indicating that a prospective witness is biased
21 or prejudiced against Defendant. The United States is also unaware of any evidence that 22 prospective witnesses have a motive to falsify or distort testimony.

23 (15) Evidence of Perception, Recollection, Communication, Truth-Telling

24 The United States is unaware of any evidence indicating that a prospective witness has a 25 problem with perception, recollection, communication, or truth-telling.

26 (16) Witness Addresses

The Government has already provided Defendant with the reports containing the names of the agents involved in the apprehension and interviews of Defendant. A defendant in a non-capital case, however, has no right to discover the identity of prospective Government witnesses prior to trial. See Weatherford v. Bursey, 429 U.S. 545, 559 (1977); United States v. Dishner, 974 F.2d 1502, 1522 (9th Cir 1992) (citing United States v. Steel, 759 F.2d 706, 709 (9th Cir. 1985)); United States v. Hicks, 103 F.2d 837, 841 (9th Cir. 1996). Nevertheless, in its trial memorandum, the Government will provide Defendant with a list of all witnesses whom it intends to call in its case-in-chief, although delivery of such a witness list is not required. See United States v. Discher, 960 F.2d 870 (9th Cir. 1992); United States v. Mills, 810 F.2d 907, 910 (9th Cir. 1987).

The Government objects to any request that the Government provide a list of every witness to the crimes charged who will not be called as a Government witness. “There is no statutory basis for granting such broad requests,” and a request for the names and addresses of witnesses who will not be called at trial “far exceed[s] the parameters of Rule 16(a)(1)(C).” United States v. Hsin-Yung, 97 F. Supp.2d 24, 36 (D. D.C. 2000) (quoting United States v. Boffa, 513 F. Supp. 444, 502 (D. Del. 1980)). The Government is not required to produce all possible information and evidence regarding any speculative defense claimed by Defendant. Wood v. Bartholomew, 516 U.S. 1, 6-8 (1995) (per curiam) (holding that inadmissible materials that are not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible exculpatory evidence are not subject to disclosure under Brady).

(17) Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant

As stated earlier, the Government will continue to comply with its obligations under Brady and its progeny. At the present time, the Government is not aware of any witnesses who have made an arguably favorable statements concerning Defendant or who could not identify him or who were unsure of his identity or participation in the crime charged.

(18) Statements Relevant to the Defense

To reiterate, the United States will comply with all of its discovery obligations. However, “the prosecution does not have a constitutional duty to disclose every bit of information that might

1 affect the jury's decision; it need only disclose information favorable to the defense that meets the 2 appropriate standard of materiality." Gardner, 611 F.2d at 774-775 (citation omitted).

3 (19) Jencks Act Material

4 The Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, requires that, after a Government witness has testified
5 on direct examination, the Government must give the Defendant any "statement" (as defined by 6 the Jencks Act) in the Government's possession that was made by the witness relating to the 7 subject matter to which the witness testified. 18 U.S.C. § 3500(b). A "statement" under the Jencks
8 Act is (1) a written statement made by the witness and signed or otherwise adopted or approved
9 by him, (2) a substantially verbatim, contemporaneously recorded transcription of the witness's
10 oral statement, or (3) a statement by the witness before a grand jury. 18 U.S.C. § 3500(e). If notes 11 are read back to a witness to see whether or not the government agent correctly understood what 12 the witness was saying, that act constitutes "adoption by the witness" for purposes of the Jencks 13 Act. United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101, 1105 (9th Cir. 1991) (citing Goldberg v. United 14 States, 425 U.S. 94, 98 (1976)). While the Government is only required to produce all Jencks Act
15 material after the witness testifies, the Government plans to provide most (if not all) Jencks Act 16 material well in advance of trial to avoid any needless delays.

17 (20) Giglio Information

18 As stated previously, the United States will comply with its obligations pursuant to Brady
19 v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), the Jencks Act, United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir.
20 1991), and Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972).

21 (21) Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses

22 The Government has not made or attempted to make any agreements with prospective
23 Government witnesses for any type of compensation for their cooperation or testimony.

24 (22) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses

25 If the Government determines that there is a confidential informant in this case and that the 26 informant's identity is "relevant and helpful to the defense of an accused, or is essential to a fair 27 determination of a cause," the Government will either disclose the identity of the informant or submit the informant's identity to the Court for an in-chambers inspection. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 60-61 (1957) (emphasis added); United States v. Ramirez-Rangel, 103 F.3d 1501, 1505 (9th Cir. 1997) (same).
28

(23) Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses

As stated above, the United States is unaware of any evidence indicating that a prospective witness is biased or prejudiced against Defendant. The United States is also unaware of any evidence that prospective witnesses have a motive to falsify or distort testimony.

(24) Law Enforcement Personnel Files

The United States will continue to comply with its obligations pursuant to United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991).

(25) Training Manuals and Policies of Relevant Law Enforcement Agencies

The United States objects to any defense request for discovery of policies, instructions and training manuals regarding the interrogation of subjects.

(26) Performance Goals and Policy Awards

The United States objects to any request for disclosure of performance goals and policy awards with respect to the detection and interruption of criminal operations.

(27) Opportunity to Weigh , Count, View and Photograph Evidence

The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E) in allowing Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy all tangible objects seized that is within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the preparation of Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its case-in-chief at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The Government need not, however, produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th Cir. 1984).

(28) Scientific Tests or Examinations

The Government will comply with its obligations under Rule 16(a)(1)(F) with respect to examinations or scientific tests.

the witness has testified. However, to expedite trial proceedings, the Government hereby requests that Defendant be ordered to provide all prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable date before trial to be set by the Court. Such an order should include any form in which these statements are memorialized, including but not limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes and reports.

UNITED STATES' MOTION FOR FINGERPRINT EXEMPLARS

As part of its case, the United States must prove that Defendant was previously deported from the United States. To prove this element, the United States anticipates calling a certified fingerprint examiner to testify that Defendant is the individual whose fingerprint appears on the warrants of deportation and other deportation documents. A number of chain of custody witnesses could be eliminated, and judicial resources conserved, by permitting the Government's expert to take Defendant's fingerprints himself. The Defendant's fingerprints are not testimonial evidence. See Schmerber v. California, 384 U.S. 757 (1966). Further, using identifying physical characteristics, such as fingerprints, does not violate Defendant's Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination. United States v. DePalma, 414 F.2d 394, 397 (9th Cir. 1969); Woods v. United States, 397 F.2d 156 (9th Cir. 1968); see also United States v. St. Onge, 676 F. Supp. 1041, 1043 (D. Mont. 1987). Accordingly, the Government requests that the Court order that Defendant make himself available for fingerprinting by the Government's fingerprint expert.

VI

UNITED STATES' EXPERT NOTICE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 16(a)(1)(G), the United States hereby provides the defense notice and a written summary of testimony the United States intends to use, pursuant to Federal Rules of Evidence 702, 703 and 705, during the trial in the above-referenced case.

A. FINGERPRINT ANALYSIS EXPERT

(1) Opinions

1 The Government intends to offer fingerprint evidence through David Beers, an expert in 2 the area of fingerprint analysis and comparison (the “fingerprint expert” or the “expert”). The 3 fingerprint expert will explain when, how, and from whom he obtained the prints, and the United
4 States anticipates that the fingerprint expert will identify Defendant as the individual the expert
5 personally fingerprinted. The fingerprint expert will also testify that the expert reviewed various 6 documents in connection with this case, including, but not limited to, Warrants of 7 Removal/Deportation, Orders to Show Cause/Notices to Appear, and Fingerprint Cards, including 8 the card taken from Defendant at the time of arrest. The Government anticipates that the 9 fingerprint expert will testify that the expert compared the known fingerprints taken from 10 Defendant with the fingerprints on the various immigration documents in Defendant’s A-File and 11 that the prints matched.

12 The United States reserves the right to have the fingerprint expert examine and testify
13 regarding other documents that may become relevant before or during trial.

14 (2) Bases and Reasons for Opinions

15 The bases for the fingerprint expert’s opinions include, but are not limited to, extensive 16 experience as a fingerprint technician and the number of fingerprint comparisons the expert has 17 completed during the course of the expert’s career. The United States anticipates that the fingerprint 18 expert will explain the expert’s background, the science of fingerprint analysis, the features and 19 characteristics of fingerprints in general, the uniqueness of each individual’s fingerprints, and the 20 methodology used to compare and contrast fingerprints. The fingerprint expert will be asked to 21 state the expert’s opinions and conclusions regarding analyses of the fingerprints on documents
22 in Defendant’s A-file and any other documents that may be relevant.

23 (3) Qualifications

24 The United States will provide (or has provided) Defendant with a copy of the fingerprint
25 expert’s curriculum vitae and expert report in this case in discovery. If the fingerprint expert must 26 be changed for some reason, the defense will be notified when the United States provides the new 27 expert’s curriculum vitae and expert report to Defendant in discovery.
28

1 B. A-FILE CUSTODIAN

2 Although the United States does not believe that it is expert testimony, the United States
3 hereby provides notice under Federal Rules of Evidence 701-705 concerning its intention to elicit
4 testimony from the A-File custodian Alexis Carroll (the “A-file custodian” or the “custodian”).

5 (1) Opinions

6 The Government intends to call the A-file custodian to testify to the deportation process
7 generally, relevant documents related to such a proceeding, and how a person who is ordered
8 deported is eventually removed from the United States in an effort to execute the Final 9 Administrative Removal Order. The A-file custodian will also testify that, based upon the 10 custodian’s review of documents, Defendant was ordered deported and removed from the United 11 States. The A-file custodian will further testify that the custodian reviewed the Department of 12 Homeland Security’s computer databases and that the A-file custodian found no I-212 form (which 13 would indicate that Defendant had applied for legal permission to reenter the United States).
14 Lastly, the custodian will testify that the only means by which a deported alien may apply for 15 permission to reenter the United States is by filing an I-212 Form and that such a form would be 16 listed in the computer databases checked.

17 (2) Bases and Reasons for Opinion

18 The A-file custodian’s opinion will be based on analysis of the files of this case, along with 19 the A-file custodian’s background, education, training, experience, and knowledge of the A-files 20 and those documents contained therein.

21 (3) Qualifications

22 A summary of the A-file custodian’s training and experience will be produced to Defendant
23 in discovery, if requested by the Court. Since the United States does not consider A-file custodian
24 testimony to be expert testimony, the United States does not intend to provide such a summary in 25 the absence of such an order.

26 C. RECIPROCAL EXPERT DISCOVERY

27

28

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(b)(1)(C), the United States hereby
2 requests a similar written summary regarding experts Defendant intends to call at trial.

3 VII

4 CONCLUSION

5 For the foregoing reasons, the United States requests that the Court deny Defendant's
6 motions, except where unopposed, and grant the United States' motions for reciprocal discovery
7 and for fingerprint exemplars.
